ROBBER'S SHOT IS FATAL TO LAKE VILLA MAN

STATE OFFICERS ISSUE WARNING AGAINST RABIES

Disease, If Not Checked
May Become State-Wide
Epidemic.

Rabies has spread along the North Shore from Cook County to Waukegan, and at the present rate of spread any day may see its appearance in Antioch and vicinity, according to Dr. G. W. Jensen, local veterinarian, who has been keeping in close touch with the situation through repeated warnings sent out by state officials in an effort to check the disease before it assumes the proportions of a state wide epidemic.

Dr. Jensen Gives Warning.

In a statement given out yesterday, Dr. Jensen, assistant state veterinarian, says: "I feel it my duty to the community as a veterinarian to inform you of several preventative measures that will, if acted upon firmly and intelligently prevent this danger from gaining a foothold among our lowly dog friends and pets and our livestock and endangering human lives. 'We are well aware of the fact that this terrible disease of the canine family has caused a number of tragic deaths in Cook county and surrounding suburbs; also compelling many exposed persons to take a prophylactic treatment.

"State officials have issued repeated warnings against the danger of rabies outbreaks that threaten to assume the proportions of a state-wide epidemic.

"State Legislation provides for the prevention of the spread of rabies through the establishment of areas subject to control measures. The law also places the enforcement of rabies control measures upon local officials. All dogs—in control areas—must be locked up, restrained by leash and muzzle, or subject to a prophylactic treatment, according to provisions of the act. Failure or refusal to enforce the law subjects peace officers to a fine of from $10 to $50.

"I would recommend to prevent the spread of rabies to the village and Township of Antioch the registration of all dogs claimed by owners—that all stray dogs be destroyed and that all dogs should receive a protective vaccination.

"However, we should not wait to employ these measures until the disease is in our midst. The time for action is now. 'Prevention of Disease' is the watchword of the hour. Let us be prepared.

"It is not my purpose to alarm anyone needlessly but the mere fact that rabies is known to exist in our own county and that at any time our children's trusted pets may come in contact with rabid strays makes this situation serious.

"I wish to state again that rabies can be prevented—and can be eradicated and should not be allowed to exist in Lake county or in the great state of Illinois."

Assistant State Veterinarian.

Often Light, Not Child, That Fails in School

Recent investigations by educators of the effect of correct illumination upon the mental alertness of school children has brought the conclusion that among dull students it is often "the light and not the child that failed."

Defective vision is frequently acquired, and is often progressive, figures show. About one per cent of children first entering school are near-sighted, and at the end of the eighth grade about 33 per cent have acquired this eye defect, tests proved.

Experiments were conducted with a group of backward public school children, and it was found that as the illumination increased they became mentally more alert. It was found, also, that every failure up to high school costs taxpayers $456, and that good illumination can be provided in schools at a cost of less than $1.50 per child at a cost of less than $1.50 per child per year.

"Have Aim In Life" Speaker Tells Mothers, Daughters at Banquet

Seventy Attend Hi-Girl's
Function at Methodist Church.

Donning aprons, smiles and their very best behavior, a group of men and boys assumed the role of waiters at the Methodist church Tuesday evening and in a very faultless manner served a wonderful chicken dinner to over seventy guests assembled at the mothers and daughters banquet sponsored by the Hi-Class of the M. E. Sunday School.

Good Program Is Enjoyed.

Miss Jessie E. Arbuckle, superintendent of the Methodist Deaconess Orphanage at Lake Huff, was the speaker of the evening. She urged every woman to have an aim in life, a goal to which they should strive to attain. She told of the different organizations of the Methodist church and how much each could do if the combined efforts of each would adopt some particular philanthropy, either home or foreign missionary work. She made this very interesting by telling of her work in the orphanage among the children.

Miss Arbuckle told of the organization of the orphanage. The children brought there either because they are orphans and have no home, or the family, of which they had been a part, had been broken by the death of one parent, or the parent or parents were suffering from some incurable or communicable disease. According to Miss Arbuckle, many times children do not stay long at the orphanage, as suitable homes are soon found for many of the children.

As to the life of the children themselves, Miss Arbuckle spoke of it as being that of one big happy family, one hundred and twenty children and thirty members of the staff. But

Local Contractors to Begin Building Operations at Once.

The plumbing contract was awarded to H. P. Lowry, but the electrical and heating contracts have not been closed as yet.

Architect's Estimate, $45,000
The original estimate of John A. Scribner, architect, of Glenview, Ill., was for $45,000. First Bids Rejected

The first opening of the bids on May 1, resulted in all bids being rejected and some alterations made in the architect's plans, as all bids at that time were well above the architect's estimate.

There was a dance by the fourth grade girls the procession, seating and crowning the queen, Mabel Simonsen, and a succession of dances, including the playmate dance, Roman soldiers, Clapp dance, Howdy Do, My Partner, and the winding of the May-pole. LANTERN STARTS $4,000 BLAZE AT SPIERING FARM

Large Barn and Contents
Are Burned at Hickory Corners Farm.

Loss estimated at $4,000 was sustained by F. H. Spiering of Hickory Corners, last Friday evening at seven o'clock when the barn and contents consisting of hay, grain and machinery, were completely destroyed by fire, which started when a lantern was overturned by Mrs. Spiering who was assisting with the evening chores. All live stock were taken from the burning building.

The Antioch fire department was called to the scene of the blaze but the building was near collapse when the firemen arrived and they gave their attention to protecting the nearby buildings.

Mr. Spiering has announced an auction sale for Saturday of this week, when he will dispose of his livestock and farm equipment, also household goods. The farm of 100 acres, known as the old Ames farm, which was purchased by Mr. Spiering from John Irving last January, is also to be sold at the auction.

WM. BECK DIES IN HOSPITAL AFTER GUNMEN ATTACK

Masked Man Leads Bandit
Gang in Looting
Farm Home.

"INDIAN CHIEF" IS SOUGHT

Sheriff Lawrence A. Doolittle and deputies today... were investigating the death of William Beck and searching for clues leading to the identity of the men who shot Beck at his home three miles east of Lake Villa at eight o'clock last night. The victim of the shooting was taken last night to Victory Memorial hospital, Waukegan. He died at five o'clock this morning. Today the body was removed to the White & Tobin funeral parlors where the inquest was to be held this afternoon.

Beck, 45, well known farmer of Lake Villa township, was at his home last evening when three men, one of whom was wearing a mask, knocked on the door. Refused admittance, one of the men shot through the door, the bullet entering Beck's abdomen and causing him to fall to the floor. Entering the house, the robbers bound and gagged Beck's aged mother who had come down stairs to see what the trouble was. Her husband, Andrew Beck, 85, who had retired, was too feeble to come down stairs to assist his wife, and the men proceeded to rob the place of money and bonds that Beck was known to have possessed. The masked man, who was evidently the leader of the gang, seemed familiar with the premises and the three lost no time in removing the valuables from a dresser drawer where Beck kept his money and securities.

Take $16 in Money

Sixteen dollars in cash was all the money in the house, according to Beck's mother, and this the robbers took. Officials today were unable to make a checkup on the amount of (Continued on Page 6)

High School Play Pleases Audience

Much Dramatic Talent Displayed in Production of "Sailor Maids."

Sailor maids, life guards, a light-house, a light-house maid, a sea captain and his son, and a yachtsman all appeared on the stage last Friday evening in "Sailor Maids," given by the Antioch High School students under the direction of Miss Hedvig Hille.

This musical comedy in two acts, had more of a plot than is usually found in operettas. Louise Simons as Frances Marie was the innocent little light-house maid whose love affairs as planned by her father, the light-house keeper, Herbert Ghan, became very complicated, the supposed lover posing as the caterer and a true yachtsman took his place as fiancé of Frances Marie and sailed her yacht to the delight of the whole company, in the end winning her love and hand.

Homor Tiffany as Gerald Kennedy, acted the clown and furnished the audience with humor with his many proposals, twelve in number, to Frances Marie.

The Swedish housekeeper, Esther Stearns, also deserves mention in carrying out her role with such reality, and such naturally funny actions.

The choruses of Sailor Maids, and Life Guards showed all signs of success in acquiring such unity and harmony of voice and action.

The school auditorium was crowded to capacity, and much credit is due Miss Rice in producing such a successful operetta as this proved to be.

PRIZE RECIPE

Marshmallow Delight
1/2 lb. marshmallows (quartered)
1/2 lb. green grapes (seedless)
4 slices canned pineapple (cut rather fine)
1/2 cup English walnut meats (chopped fine)
1/2 pint whipping cream (well beaten).
Method — Mix marshmallows, grapes, walnut meats and pineapple 12 hours before serving. Fold in well beaten cream when ready to serve.
Mrs. Joseph Smith.

To cook lamb deliciously—fry the thin slices in enough Karo syrup to keep from scorching, only one tablespoon necessary for one slice.

Egg Canapes

1 cup stuffed olives
2 hard boiled eggs
Salad dressing
Rounds of buttered toast.
Mix chopped eggs with sufficient salad dressing and pile on the toast. Garnish with the sliced stuffed olives.

Consider the Waistline

It has its ups and downs—The waistline, a detail of importance, finds expression in many odd ways. It may take form in a snug hip-fitting girdle or a narrow straight-around belt at the increasingly popular position. Sometimes it is dropped in a mid-Victorian point or only indicated by ties at the right side. A short flaring petticoat may raise the waistline just as a soft wide girdle may lower it. For sports it takes a diagonal turn with a narrow belt or

Pinwheel Cookies

Cream 1/2 cup butter, add gradually 1/2 cup sugar, add 1 beaten egg yolk and beat the mixture well. Add 3 tablespoons milk; add 1 1/2 cups of flour which have been sifted with 1/2 teaspoons baking powder and 1/4 teaspoon salt. Add 1/2 teaspoon vanilla extract. Divide dough into halves. To one-half of this mixture add 1 square of chocolate melted.

Roll the white dough into a thin rectangular sheet, then roll the chocolate mixture into a sheet the same size. Place chocolate dough over the white and gently press together. Roll up as for jelly roll into a tight roll about 2 inches in diameter. Set in ice-box for several hours to become firm. Cut into thin slices with a sharp knife and lay, cut side down, on a buttered cookie sheet. Bake in a moderate oven at 375 degrees F. for about 8 to 10 minutes. Makes 1 dozen cookies.

These dainty suggestions are especially good for those warm spring and summer afternoons when a few friends drop in for tea, and for those hot Sunday evenings when one wants only a light lunch and that an appetizer.

Salmon Sandwiches

1 can salmon, 1 small cucumber, chopped, 1 dill pickle, chopped, 1/2 cup salad dressing, bread sliced.
Remove all bones, oil and skin from the salmon. Break it up with a fork, add cucumber and pickle and moisten with salad dressing. Spread between thin slices of white or graham bread. Garnish with sliced stuffed olives.

Water Cress Sandwiches

1 cup crisp water cress, 2 tablespoons salad dressing, seasoning, thin slices buttered whole-wheat bread.
Use only the leaves of the water cress. Chop them coarsely; blend with salad dressing. Spread between thin slices of white or graham bread. This, also, makes an effective rolled sandwich with sprigs of the cress tucked in the end for garnishing.
Lettuce may be substituted for the water cress and the result unchanged.

Stuffed Celery

12 stuffed olives, 2 teaspoons onion juice, 1/2 cup grated cheese, salad dressing, celery stalks, salt, paprika.
Add minced olives, onion juice, salad dressing and seasoning to the cheese. Work to smooth paste. Fill celery stalks and chill.
This may be served either as a relish or as a salad with two or three stalks placed on a lettuce leaf.

Frozen Cheese

1/2 pound cream cheese, 1 cup whipped cream, 2 minced canned pineapples, 1/4 cup chopped nuts, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon paprika, lettuce or water cress, salad dressing.
Break up the cheese with a fork and work into it the other ingredients. Turn into a mold, seal edges and bury in ice and salt for four hours. Unmold, slice and serve garnished with water cress. Cover with salad dressing.

DAINTY "PIN ON" ACCESSORIES

THAT there is a growing appreciation among women of the important role which accessories must play in the art of good dressing, there is no doubt. Else why the more than eager crowding of the fair sex about the various neckwear counters, in the boutique sections or in department stores and shops which specialize in costume jewelry?

The meticulous care with which lady selects this or that vulgar-looking trinket is an outcome of the influence brought to bear by the current mode. Today, to be well dressed, one's costume, because of the harmony of its component parts, must present the appearance of a perfect unit—a picture complete in itself, as it were. This matter of assembling matching accessories has been greatly simplified in late years, in that manufacturers and designers are working together to produce articles of dress and adornment in identical colorings and characteristic stylings.

Especially are intriguing novelties, which add the satisfying color touch to the costume, to be found in neckwear departments. Charming "pin on" ornaments, made of nautiles and ostrich furs, of filigree and the like such as shown in this picture, are obtainable in all the popular colorings. For instance, if one's daytime frock has a vest of flesh-tinted silk, as is that shown in the oval in this picture, it is possible to duplicate the exact shade in a shoulder knot made of plumed georgette which is elaborated with a rosette of ostrich furs centered with a made rosebud of the chiffon or crepe. Perhaps the vestee of your afternoon dress is in the popular rose beige or possibly it is pure white—whatever its color it can be beautifully matched with a novelty chiffon and ostrich shoulder ornament.

An enlarged view of the handsome ostrich novelty as worn by the young woman to the right at the top is here presented so that one can observe the exquisiteness of its detail. For this, the georgette is worked into milliner folds, then looped like ribbon. Speaking of ribbon, the latest fad is to tie the boutonniere on one's coat collar with matching ribbon, and a very pretty effect it gives, too.

The giraffe rosette in the picture is of plumed nautiles, shirred silk and a sparkling ornament. It is as effective in black as in colors. The rhinestone center of the one worn by the velvet-clad young modern in the lower left corner of the illustration answers sparkle to sparkle to that of the crystal links which fasten her frock at the neck.

SHOES

Shoes must echo the character of the general costume, so elegance is the keynote of the newest Parisian footwear. From Perugia, Hollstein, El Greco and Ducet Scavini come the smart models, showing black patent and light-colored lizard and kids among the leathers used for afternoon, with silver and gold lizards and kids, varicolored broaches and colored satins as favored evening fabrics. Colored enamel, silver filigree, and imitation precious stones do their decorative bit in buckles and ornaments, and in several cases matching hand bags complement the shoes. The only sports footwear shown is of dark brown calf, perforated with interesting ties finished with fringed leather tips.

A Practical Twine Holder

For wrapping the children's lunch and other packages an ever-ready ball of string in a holder is a greater convenience than ordinarily realized, though few housewives go to the expense of purchasing a twine holder. If the funnel is left hanging on the wall with the ball of twine held in it it will serve the double purpose of funnel and holder.

For work around the home garage, under the car, and around the motor, the funnel makes a good electric light reflector, after running the wire through the spout. The wide part prevents the bulb from breakage and also throws the light in the place desired.

Pictures may be hung without a ladder if the hook is placed in the spout of a funnel, and a long pole inserted in the wide end to raise the hook to the molding. After the hook is up the wire can be easily slipped over the hook by the pole alone.

A funnel makes a good protection for a fumigating candle in disinfecting a closetful of clothing which might catch on fire if the open flame were left to burn. Place it over the dish, and only the fumes rise up, leaving the flame safely covered.

Trinkets as Trimmings

When costume jewelry first appeared it was looked upon as theatrical; in fact it was often seen behind the footlights or at fancy dress parties. Gradually it has climbed upward in fashion esteem until now it is a really indispensable part of ordinary dressing.

When costume jewelry became an accepted thing its everyday wearers were admitted provided the pieces were well-chosen additions to their clothes. This word addition is used advisedly because in its second era costume jewelry was an addition to the costume, an enhancement though not a necessity.

Now we see the costume jewelry in its third state of progress. It has become an essential, an intrinsic part of costuming, especially for afternoon and evening clothes. Frequently the costume and the jewelry accompaniment are totally dependent on one another. Neither can be at its best by itself.

The dress needs its own particular pin or buckle to make it complete. In many cases the jewels are fastened into the garment practically inseparable from it. We can't put this or that pin with just anything we happen to be wearing. It's a premeditated plot all through out and decided upon beforehand, once and for all. So the jewelry in each instance is literally part of the costume. "Costume jewelry" is a phrase to be taken seriously.

Wilmot Base Ball Team
Defeats McHenry
17 to 5.

At the regular meeting of the Ill-Y club, May 7th, the boys voted to continue the work for another year. The following officers were elected: President, Norman Jedele, vice president, Winsor Madden, secretary, Lester Bufon, treasurer, Dean Loftus. The final meeting for the year was held Tuesday, May 14. Plans for next year were discussed and Mr. Nord, Racine and Kenosha County Y. M. C. A. secretary was present to explain the Y. M. C. A. Summer Camp at Phantom Lake to the boys. Several members are expected to spend ten days at the camp this summer.

The Junior Prom was held Friday evening, May 11, and was a very successful event. The gym was cleverly decorated in red and white, which with red lighting produced a fascinating effect. The crowd was somewhat smaller than usual, but everyone enjoyed themselves dancing to the tune of the clever Red Pepper orchestra of Milwaukee.

Wilmot Baseball team will play the Genoa City team at the Wilmot Park Sunday, May 20. Wilmot won their third straight game Sunday when they defeated the fast McHenry team by a score of 17 to 5. This was a remarkable accomplishment since the McHenry team is one of the fastest teams in Northern Illinois. Timely hitting and brilliant support behind the masterful pitching of Shubert Frank "brought home the bacon" for the local boys. The hitting stars for Wilmot were: "Swooty" Frank, Art Gagan and George Richter. Bohr and Ballman starred for McHenry. The return game with McHenry will be played Sunday, May 27. Mr. Schnurr was absent from the lineup Sunday but promises to be on hand to perform with his usual skill next Sunday.

F. A. Kruckman collided with another car in Twin Lakes Sunday. Fortunately Mr. Kruckman escaped with only a crushed fender.

Donald Herrick of Chicago spent the week end at the home of Mrs. Leah Pacey.

Donald Tyler returned to Milwaukee Sunday, after having visited the Misses Carey over the week end.

The Misses Grace and Blanche Carey, Mrs. James Carey and daughter motored to Chicago Saturday. James Carey returned with them after having attended the Out-Door Exposition for the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Mecklenberg and children of Richmond were Sunday callers at A. H. Hildorf home.

George Dean and family of Bassett, Bert Dean and family of Silverlake, Chas. Dean and family of Kenosha and Mrs. Albert Hanke of Antioch were Sunday callers of their parents. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Dean.

Punch the Originator

The present application of the word "cartoon" originated in the English periodical Punch, the occasion being the first exhibition of cartoons for the houses of parliament, in July, 1843, when Punch appeared with a rival series of satirical designs.

Advice

Atchison folks have quit worrying about a certain man. When he is taken off one road that leads to h-l, he immediately gets onto another road that leads to the same place. If a man is determined to go to h-l, why waste any time on him? Take that time and use it on a man who is wavering and is less determined.—Atchison Globe.

Healing Balm

The balm of Gilead from the earliest antiquity had a reputation as a healing agent. The people of Gilead prepare it even at the present time for the benefit of pilgrims to the Holy land. This, however, is thought to be less likely to be the true balm than the juice of the styrax (Styrax officinalis), a common plant of Gilead, which in ancient times was much used for healing.

Takes Life Seeking Burial With Husband

Hungary.—So that she might be buried with her husband, Mme. Theatre Kern, one of Hungary's most beautiful women, committed suicide a few hours after her husband's death. Mrs. Kern was the daughter of Doctor Hampel, an archeologist, and a niece of Frank Pulszky, art historian. Her husband was a professor of music and critic-composer.

Professor Kern died of apoplexy while working at his desk one evening. In the early hours of the morning Mme. Kern turned on a gas jet and took her own life. The two bodies were buried side by side.

MAN KILLS WIFE IN JEALOUS RAGE

Then Inflicts Fatal Wounds on Himself.

St. Louis.—Samuel Ballin, seventy years old, died at City hospital here of wounds which he inflicted with a knife after stabbing his fifty-eight year old wife, Fannie, to death at the Jewish Orthodox Old Folks' home, where both lived.

Ballin, a retired merchant, and his wife had resided at the home for eight months. Recently he became angry when he saw his wife in friendly conversation with another resident, Mitchell Walsman, in the corridors of the home. For two days he quarreled with his wife and then he was observed walking nervously back and forth in front of the door of the third floor room which he occupied with his wife.

Several minutes later screams were heard in the room. Mrs. Lena Gillman, the superintendent, and occupants of rooms in the same corridor ran to the Ballin room.

Mrs. Ballin was dead on the floor with a knife wound in the neck. Her husband, unconscious and with his throat slashed, was a few feet away. A large knife was found near him.

Removed to the hospital, Ballin was unable to make a statement.

A coroner's verdict of suicide and homicide was returned at the inquest following testimony by police, residents of the home and attendants. Ballin was extremely jealous and became frantic when his wife was out of his sight for half an hour. It was testified. He made two visits to the kitchen of the home the day before the murder, explaining once that he was looking for his wife and again that he was seeking a knife with which to "cut haints." He stabbed his wife and himself with his pocket knife.

The Ballins, married 40 years, are survived by three daughters, two sons, sixteen grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. Ballin had been married twice, his first wife dying of natural causes.

Bandits Are Sentenced to Learn Commandments

Lincoln, Neb.—Learn the ten commandments, go to no shows for a year, drive no cars, stay away from each other, get into no trouble, and learn the oath of citizenship, was the sentence handed down to three young boys, Edward Studnicka, seventeen; David Butler, fifteen, and Charles McLees, fourteen, by Judge Shepherd in Juvenile court here. The youths had previously pleaded guilty to 20 car thefts, one burglary and a dozen petty robberies.

The boys, who declared they "did it just for fun," were captured through the efforts of a suburban vigilance committee, organized to comb the territory after the thefts had become too numerous for the police to handle.

The trio were paroled to their parents but failure to obey any of the drastic provisions listed means a prolonged sentence in the state industrial school at Kearney.

Williams was charged with holding up Louis Davidson, a salesman, last November in a hallway and taking a watch, ring and $8.

"I was able to identify Williams positively by the teeth marks I made in the back of his neck," Davidson said on the witness stand. "We had quite a struggle in the hallway. I grabbed Williams, although he had shot me through the hand and through the abdomen."

WRECKS WOMAN'S HOME, KILLING SELF AND GIRL

Jealous Man Sets Off Dynamite in Kitchen of Boarding House.

McMechen, W. Va.—Incensed because his boarding house keeper, with whom he was infatuated, threatened to return to her estranged husband, John Sebert, fifty, recently set off several sticks of dynamite in the home of Mrs. Julia Karp, forty-two, killing himself and Mrs. Karp's thirteen-year-old daughter, and wounding Mrs. Karp and three other persons. The explosion wrecked the Karp dwelling and a house next door.

Mrs. Karp, suffering from a possible fracture of the skull and other injuries, told Coroner Early of Marshall county that Sebert tried to prevail upon her to remain away from her husband, but that she refused.

Runs From House.

When he entered the house recently she said she noticed a battery in his pocket and a dynamite cap in his hand. Sensing what he intended to do, she said she ran for the door but did not escape before dynamite placed under the kitchen table had been set off by Sebert.

Sebert was instantly killed and his hand, clutching a dynamite cap, was found later by police. Sister, Mrs. Karp's daughter, died at a hospital. Three younger Karp children escaped.

A man named McCloskey and his wife, who lived in the other house demolished, and a boy who was walking near the house at the time of the blast were injured. McCloskey received a probable fracture of the skull, but the others were only slightly hurt.

Mrs. Karp said she and her husband had separated some months ago.

Filipino Boy Perishes

Saving American Girl

Shanghai.—A tale of stanch heroism recently came from a street in the international settlement where Japanese, Filipinos and American boys play baseball.

Pedro Diaz, eleven-year-old Filipino, was at bat. A ball thrown by young Toto, a ten-year-old Japanese pitcher, came toward him. Pedro swung and connected. The ball sped to the distant outfield. The boy rounded first, second, and headed for third.

But at that moment a motor car, driven by a Chinese, turned up the street. At the same time Dorothy Jane Morgan, three, the daughter of an American resident, wandered out on the diamond.

Pedro forgot the ball game and dashed for the little girl. He was able to push her out of the way just as the automobile, in inches, screeching, slowed its pace.

The boy was hit. He was taken at once to the General hospital, but the best medical aid that could be engaged was powerless. He died on the operating table.

Stages Hold-Up to Get Regular Eats From Jail

Baltimore.—William Hillbinger was hauled in the third floor corridor of the Chamber of Commerce building by a stranger who poked a pistol against his ribs.

"Give me ten cents," commanded the bandit. A dime changed hands. The hold-up man continued:

"Now go get a policeman. I will be waiting for him right here." Hillbinger obeyed the instruction, returning promptly with a patrolman. The robber handed his pistol to the officer and the dime to Hillbinger. He identified himself as Caesar P. Behaert, thirty-one, of Brooklyn, Md., and explained he had been out of work more than six months. He knew meals were regular at the city jail, he said, so determined upon his novel plan for steady board. He was held for grand jury action.

Prank Kills Boy

Richmond, Va.—One of four boys grouped about a gas main here dropped a match into an opening to "see the blue flames." Thirteen-year-old Julian Williams was blown 25 feet in the air and killed. The three others were badly injured.

Score One for the Radio

Before the days of the radio the minister too frequently used to stand in his pulpit and looking over the array of empty pews, remark thusly: "I shall now address myself to the Great American desert." But today it is different. He now says: "I shall address myself to the unseen thousands who are listening in throughout radioland." That's what we would call making the desert blossom.—Wallowa (Ore.) Emerald Production

The most productive emerald mines of today are in Columbia and Venezuela. There is a famous emerald mine near Santa Fe. Stones are still found, however, in some of the old mines of Egypt, and some years ago emeralds of a lovely color were thrown up by the sea near Alexandria. It is possible they came down in the silt of the Nile from the mines of upper Egypt.

LAKE VILLA WOMAN'S CLUB
HOLDS LUNCHEON

The Woman's club of Lake Villa closed the work of its first three months last week Thursday by a luncheon being served in the dining room of the M. E. church. Nearly all of the twenty-eight members were present and two new names were presented as a start for the new year. Mrs. Gertrude Hamlin, president, introduced the speakers in a very capable manner. Mrs. Farrell, a State Officer, was present and gave a very pleasing address; also Mrs. Munch of Lake Forest, who organized the club a few months ago, made a few timely remarks. Mrs. Bradley of Allendale told of the interesting work among boys at Allendale, and Mrs. Atkins, accompanied by Mrs. Martin of Millburn at the organ, gave two violin solos, which showed much talent. All present were glad to have Mrs. White of Millburn give a vocal solo. "The Little Old Shack", in her usual pleasing manner. The hostess committee, Mrs. Fred Hamlin, Mrs. Seeger and Mrs. Haley served a delightful luncheon, the tables being decorated in pink and white, and the luncheon nicely served. It was a very pleasant occasion.

Mothers, Daughters

These are divided into smaller families with one leader in charge of 13 to 15 children. This family is complete in itself, in that its program is under the guidance of its leader, they work together in the dining hall, the leaders serving its own group, and the children helping by clearing their own table.

At the orphanage many tests are given to the children such as blood, brain, phytic tests, to find out just what the children are capable of doing. Miss Arbuckle told of a boy of the genius group. A college boy who works at the orphanage earning his way through promised to give this boy a nickel for every four cents he saved. This little boy, after earning a couple of nickles had them changed into pennies and then received more nickles for the pennies. But his training at the orphanage finally overcame his desire to earn more nickles and he went first to his leader and told her what he had done and then went to the college boy and returned his money. The superintendent remarked that much could be expected of this boy in his future life as a business man.

Mrs. L. R. Watson, who is teacher of the III-Class of girls, acted as toastmaster, cleverly introducing each number. Mrs. A. M. Krali gave the invocation. Mrs. L. O. Bright gave a toast on "Girls." Mrs. Gaston sang two selections, "That Wonderful Mother of Mine," and "I Heard You Go By," accompanied by Mrs. Leo Tarnow. Martha Westlake read a poem on "Mother," and defined Mother in very fitting terms. Mrs. Gaston and Mrs. Nellie Heald Tarnow sang the duet, "At Dawning," and the program was ended with a toast on "Home" by Catherine Krali, and all joined in singing "America." The waiters were: Lloyd Wetzel, S. Boyer Nelson, Rex Bonser, W. C. Petty, L. O. Bright, Homer Tiffany, L. R. Watson, and Paul Kessler.

Mrs. Sophia Hennings entertained seven couples from Chicago last Saturday evening in honor of her birthday.

Impression of Fear

The origin of fear is often traceable to some incident in early life. Thus, a boy was full of courage and fond of fighting up to the age of ten, when his mother saw him as he was returning home after a combat. Horrified at his appearance, she fainted. He feared to fight again, and believed he was, as other boys called him, a coward.—Exchange

Emeralds in Old Egypt

The emerald seems to have been the favorite stone of ancient Egypt. Old emerald mines have been discovered so extensive that hundreds of men must have worked in them at a time, much as they work in the diamond mines of South Africa today. Many rings of Cleopatra's time are set with emeralds deeply cut with her portrait. These she is said to have bestowed on foreign ambassadors as a mark of her favor.

Many Uses for Tin

Tin is used in coating iron and steel for many commercial and industrial purposes. Hoofs are made of it; a tin compound is used on the backs of mirrors; cans for vegetables and fruits are tin; buckets, cups, pans and toys are often made of it; unfoil envelopes candles; medical cases are often encased in it. As a pure metal it is too expensive to be used for many purposes, so stronger and cheaper alloys are found.

Octagonal Currency

In the California gold rush days, the standard of value was the "octagonal," a gold piece worth $50 that took its name from its shape. For many years octagonal $1 gold pieces were coined for use in the West.

bonds and other valuable papers missing from Beck's effects, however, some $1400 in registered bonds and U. S. Treasury notes were not taken. It was reported that about $3,500 in bonds had disappeared, but the report could not be confirmed today by any officials or by the murdered man's parents. No records can be found about the house or in any of the banks patronized by Beck, showing what bonds or other securities were in his possession. It is known, however, that Beck invested considerable money in cattle recently, which may account for the small amount of cash in the house last night.

Mother Gives Alarm

Some time after the disappearance of the robbers, Beck's aged mother who had been bound hand and foot and gagged, managed to remove the bandages from her feet and made her way to the home of Wm. Hagen, a neighbor, to give the alarm. The sheriff's office was notified at once and the wounded man was taken to the Victory Memorial hospital, but his wounds proved fatal and he died at five o'clock this morning. The bullet found in his body was of .38 calibre.

"Indian Chief" Sought

From description of the men and from the masked one's apparent familiarity with the premises, officials have reason, they believe, to check up on the whereabouts of one Nick Henry Bresette, who claims to be an Indian chief, and hails from Bayfield, Wisconsin. Bresette, a wanderer, and broke, was given shelter at the Beck home for several days about a year ago. Later he obtained employment at Wedges corners. Recently Bresette has been seen in this locality, in dire need of funds as usual and applied to acquaintances for financial assistance. He has a brother living in Elgin, Illinois. It is said.

Efforts to locate the "chief" have been futile thus far today.

Father Not Told of Death

Beck's aged father, owing to his state of feebleness, had not been told of his son's death at noon today. Mrs. Beck, however, seemed in full possession of her faculties and told officers and newspaper men all she knew of the tragedy and expressed a hope that the guilty ones be apprehended at once. The aged pair posed in front of their home for Chicago newspaper men who had come out to "cover" the story of the slaying.

Baby Lies Between Rails as Train Passes Over It

Newville, Mo.—After having been run over by a passenger train, Charles Wright, three years old, is not even scratched.

The child wandered from his home a short distance from the railroad tracks. When the train passed on its run Engineer C. R. Oliver saw in the middle of the track what he thought was a bundle but which he soon discovered was a sleeping child.

The brakes were jammed on, but the train could not be stopped until it had passed over the child, pushing back to the rear of the train. Engineer Oliver found, not the mangled form of the child, but a crying baby sitting on the track. A doctor pronounced the child unharmed.

Hangs by Seat of Pants 3 Hours, Firemen Rescue

Oakland, Calif.—The sword of Damocles hung over his head by a single thread and flames played daily that the thread would hold. Mike Martineau hung for three hours by the seat of his trousers over San Francisco bay and prayed with equal earnestness that these threads, too, would hold.

Mike wandered off the end of a pier. By the law of averages he would have fallen into the bay and probably would have drowned. But his trousers caught on a sharp spike, and there he hung.

The fire department finally rigged a derrick and hoisted him to safety.

Steal Bathtubs, Sinks and Even Radiators

Cleveland, Ohio.—That a number of Cleveland thieves believe in the old adage "Cleanliness is next to godliness," is evidenced by the number of bathtubs, sinks and symbols of household cleanliness in general, stolen from empty apartments in the course of a year.

The Cleveland Owners and Tenants' association, meeting here, revealed that the combined losses in plumbing fixtures of 1,000 members totaled thousands of dollars.
"Even radiators are taken along by apartment filfers," said J. E. Yelsky, president of the association. "Evidently the thieves have a desire to keep warm as well as clean."

Steps to license all dealers in second-hand plumbing goods are expected to be taken to improve these conditions, Yelsky said.

Dying Woman Nailed in Closet at Home

Columbus, Ohio.—Fatally beaten on the head with a hammer and nailed in a closet at her home here, Mrs.
Arthur Battelle was found near death recently by canvassers and a neighbor who were told of her plight by the woman's two small children. Mrs.
Battelle died before she had reached the hospital.

Police are seeking the husband, Arthur Battelle, forty-one, a salesman.
Four-year-old twins, Nettie and Jim,
told the two house-to-house canvassers who came to the door that "mother is dead and nailed in a closet." Investigation revealed the body.
Blood-covered trousers of the husband were found behind a davenport in the room.

Travel in the Sahara

Concrete guide towers have been erected by the French in some sections of the Sahara. They are about 25 miles apart; that is, about a day's journey
There are also "bargains," or small adobe resting places where shelter may be obtained. The keepers also supply travelers with eggs, as well as coffee and goats' milk.

as a king of empires in the greatest
